

CE.3c&d in a Nutshell

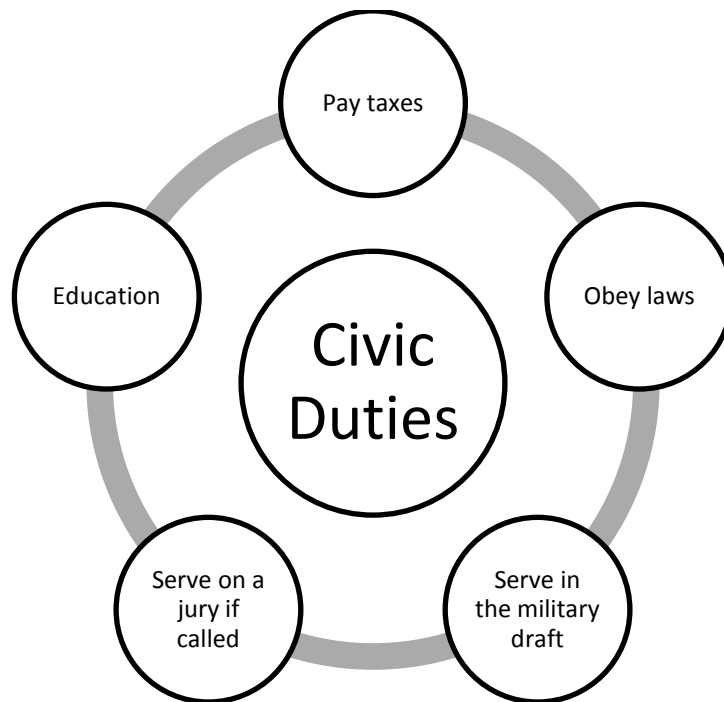

SOL CE.3c&d is all about: Our Civic Duties and Responsibilities

Civic Duties are MANDATORY, which means
You must do them

What are our Civic Duties?

What happens if you do not fulfill your civic duties? Face legal consequences

Civic Responsibilities are Voluntary, which means
You should do them, but you do not have to

What are our Civic Responsibilities?

How can we fulfill them?

Register and vote	Hold elected office	Communicate with government officials	Serve in voluntary or appointed positions	Participate in political campaigns	Keep informed	Respect others' rights to an equal voice in gov't
Vote for president, Congress, Governor, and local leaders	Run for president, governor, Congress, local government	Write letters, make phone calls, go visit them, send emails	Serve on local boards, PTA	Give money, hand out flyers, make phone calls, work for a campaign	Watch the news, read newspaper, read articles online	Listen politely to other points of view

How do civic and social duties address community needs and serve the public good?

A democratic society requires the active participation of its citizens. Which means, citizens have to:

- Volunteer to support democratic institutions, such as the League of Woman Voters
- Express concern about the welfare of the community as a whole
- Help to make the community a good place to work and live, by volunteering, tutoring, picking up trash
